

ROTARY SEEKS EXPERIENCED PROFESSIONALS: CENTRAL AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN

The Rotary Foundation Cadre of Technical Advisers provides assistance and technical expertise to Rotarians planning and implementing projects, ensures the proper stewardship of Foundation grant funds, and assists The Rotary Foundation Trustees in the funding process.

The cadre is currently seeking Rotarians, especially women and Spanish speakers, who live in Central America and the Caribbean and are experienced professionals in these fields:

WATER AND SANITATION	ECONOMIC AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT	DISEASE PREVENTION AND TREATMENT	BASIC EDUCATION AND LITERACY	MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH	COMMUNITY AND PROJECT DEVELOPMENT
Survey, design, and construction of water supply, water treatment, or sanitation systems	Small enterprise: local business, cooperatives, social enterprise, and income-generating activities including access to markets (French and Spanish speakers needed)	Communicable and infectious disease control	Teacher training Water, sanitation, and hygiene in schools	Obstetrics and gynecology	Community assessments
Water quality analysis and treatment		International public health development	Curriculum development Adult literacy	Clinical nutrition
Water resource management		Vocational training	Mental health, suicide prevention, treatment of substance abuse and depression	Education of those with developmental or physical disabilities	Sexual and reproductive health
Water, sanitation, and hygiene in schools	Agriculture techniques, small farming	Physical disabilities, rehabilitation and physical therapy, spectral disorders	Working with out-of-school youth or underperforming youth	Monitoring and evaluation
Water, sanitation, and hygiene advocacy	Microfinance project design and implementation	Facility-based and mobile health care equipment and technology	Management of formalized tutoring, mentoring or afterschool programming	Nursing and midwifery education and training
Solid waste or wastewater management		Prevention, treatment, and management of noncommunicable diseases: diabetes, cancer, cardiovascular disease, Alzheimer's, dementia, etc.	Training of librarians and library staff, training teachers to utilize libraries		Auditing or accounting (Spanish speakers needed)
Planning and development of life skills-based hygiene education		Primary health care, community health care, training of trainers	Monitoring and evaluation of learning outcomes		Teacher training in technology use, incorporating technology education into curriculum

For more information or to join the cadre, write to cadre@rotary.org.